Â

Â Znamie w postaci czerwonego krzyza bylo cecha rozpoznawcza rodu Merowingow. Czerwony krzyz znajdujacy sie pomiedzy lopatkami lub na piersi, pozwalal natychmiast rozpoznać kazdego z Merowingow. Dynastia Merowingow cieszyła sie wyjątkowym respektem a krolowie posiadali ponad naturalne zdolności. Potrafili uzdrawiac za pomoca dotyku, nazywano ich czarownikami, ale co najwazniejsze ich krew uznawana byla za swieta.

Dokładne pochodzenie jednej z galezi tego rodu nie jest znane. Według mitow pochodzi ona z morza, co można zinterpretowac, jako zamorskie, lub nie europejskie pochodzenie. Zamorskie pochodzenie można również przypisac rodowi wywodzacyemu sie od Chrystusa i Magdaleny. W konsekwencji nieznana, lub dla bezpieczenstwa celowo ukrywana, druga galezia rodu Merowingow może być krew Chrystusa. W ostatnio odczytanym koptyjskim manuskrypcie z IV wieku istnieje zwrot, w którym Chrystus mowi słowa "moja zona". Taki zwrot poswiadcza istnienie malzenstwa, Chrystusa i Magdaleny.

_ Krolowie z rodu Merowingow panowali od V do VII wieku na duzym obszarze Europy (teren obecnej Francji i Niemiec). Nosili w swoich zylach swieta krew i dali poczatek wielu przyszlym dynastiom krolewskim.

Uzasadnieniem dla korzeni Chrystusowych rodu Merowingow jest fakt, ze w przyszlych wiekach wielu wladcow Europy bedzie zabiegalo o sluby z ksiezniczkami merowinskimi. Byly nawet przypadki poslubienia ksiezniczek merowinkich przez niektorych Papiezy. Wszyscy oni w ten sposob, chcieli posiadac swieta krew w rodowodzie swoich potomkow.

Znamie rodu Graala, spadkobiercow Merowingow.

Znamie Merowingow nie otwieralo sie juz od kilkunastu stuleci i pojawilo sie dopiero po inicjacji rodziny Graala w systemie magnetycznym Matrycy Czlowieka. Wyglad znaku w postaci czerwonego krzyza, przybral jednak nieco inny ksztalt, pozostala wspolnota miejsca i barwy, natomiast rozwinela sie forma geometryczna. Znamie, ktore pojawilo sie miedzy lopatkami tworca matrycy, posiada forme geometryczna gwiazdy z osmioma promieniami. Inna interpretacja tej formy, moga byc dwa krzyze posiadajace wspolne centrum i lezace w tym samym obszarze.

The matrix of a Man and the birthmark of the Kings from the dynasty of the Merovingians. Â The birthmark in the form of the red cross was a characteristic feature of the house of the Merovingians. The red cross that was situated between the shoulders or on the chest allowed one to recognise each of the Merovingians at once. The dynasty of the Merovingians enjoyed an exceptional respect and the kings had supernatural powers. They could heal by touch, they were called the sorcerers, but most importantly their blood was considered to be the holy one. Â Â The precise origin of one of the branches of this house is not known. According to the myths it comes from the sea, what can be interpreted as an over-sea or a non-European origin. The over-sea origin can be also ascribed to the house that descends from Christ and Magdalene. Consequently, the second branch of the house of the Merovingians which was unknown or for safety reasons which was purposely kept in concealment may be the blood of Christ. In the Coptic manuscript of 4th Â century that has been recently read there is a phrase in which Christ says the words: "my wife". Such a phrase is evidence that Christ and Magdalene were married. Â

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vlm0LJmH4M#>! Â The kings from the house of the Merovingians ruled from V to VII th century on a big area of Europe (the region of present-day France and Germany). They had the holy blood in their veins and they gave rise to many future royal dynasties. Â The justification of the Christian roots of the Merovingian house is the fact that in past centuries many rulers of Europe endeavoured to marry the Merovingian princesses. There were even some cases when some Popes married the Merovingian princesses. All of them in this way wanted to have the holy blood in the bloodline of their descendants. Â The birthmark of the house of Graal, of the successors of the Merovingians. Â The birthmark of the Merovingians has not opened from ten to twenty centuries and it appeared only when the initiation of the family of Graal in the magnetic system of the Matrix of a Man had taken place. However, the appearance of the mark in the form of the red cross assumed a different shape, there is a union of place and colour whereas the geometrical form has developed. The birthmark that appeared between the shoulders of the creator of the matrix has a geometrical form of a star with eight rays. A different interpretation of this form may be two crosses which have a common centre and which are situated in the same area. Â
